Entered as second class matter April 21, 1911 at the post office at Estancia, New Mexico, under the Act of March 3, 1879

There will be many to dispute that the Journal and Hagerman did it but results tell the most eloquent tale.— New Mexican.

For once we agree with the New Mexican. We too believe that the Journal and Hagerman had a great deal to do with the snowing Bursum under, and in Bernalillo county the same is true as regards Hubbell.

The Royal Neighbors of America, local lodge, will meet with Mrs. Dr. Mason on Saturday afternoon at her home west of the postoffice. All members of the lodge are urged to be present.

Perfecto Jaramillo came in from Encino yesterday noon bringing the returns from that precinct.

J. W. Chavez, representative-elect from Torrance county to the state legislature, came in on the train yesterday noon to learn his total majority.

At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon Chairman A. A. Jones of the Democratic Central committee made the following statement:

"From reports we have at hand we feel safe in claiming the election of W. C. McDonald and all of the Democratic supreme court ticket by four thousand majority and the entire state ticket by two thousand. Of course, we have no complete returns yet from any county, but these estimates are formed from reports received and judging by the 'drift' of things. The Democratic ticket polled ninety-five per cent of the Socialist vote for the judges of the supreme court and that accounts for the heavy majority we claim for the judicial ticket."

Mr. Jones has just returned here from Las Vegas and he says that Bursum probably carried San Miguel county by 750, and part of the Republican ticket was elected by about 900, from returns he heard there—New Mexican.

Under Section 3 of the enlarged homestead act, as construed by instructions of June 23, 1911 (40 L. D. 142), one who makes homestead entry for less than 320 acres may enter other contiguous lands, subject to the provisions of that act, which shall not, together with the original entry, exceed 320 acres.
